

WANTS WIFE'S SLAYER SAVED FROM CHAIR

Keeler, Married Again, Now Believes Furlong Was Insane.

Joseph Keeler, whose wife was recently slain by his nephew, eighteen-year-old Frank Furlong, has appealed to Gov. Hughes to commute the sen- tence of the condemned murderer, now in the Sing Sing death-house.

Keeler is happily married again, and lives with his new wife and the two children of the murdered woman at No. 27 Burnside avenue, Bronx.

"Joe is trying to forget the tragedy," said his new mother-in-law to-day. "Ever since Frank Furlong went to Sing Sing to await execution the boy's father, who is a fireman in the Bronx, has been urging Mr. Keeler to intercede for him. Joe decided the boy must have been crazy when he killed his aunt, and he has asked the Governor to save him."

In November, 1904, the Keelers were living in a small apartment at No. 8 East One Hundred and Fifteenth street. Keeler was a clerk. One day Frank Furlong called. The children were at school and Mrs. Keeler was alone. Furlong was a never-do-well youth given to dissipation. His aunt gave him some food, but declined to give him money.

In his confession later Furlong said he waited his chance and struck his aunt with a heavy iron bolt. She dropped with her skull crushed. He tore her earrings from her ears and took a ring from her finger, but could not find any money. He left the house, but was soon captured by the police.

The children found their dead mother when the relatives from Bronx. About a year ago Keeler married Alice McVey, who lived across the street at No. 165 Park avenue.

JAPAN CONFIDENT OF ROOSEVELT'S SUCCESS.

Expects the President Will Have His Way on the Question of Exclusion.

TOKIO, Feb. 13.—Despite the apparent hitch in the Japanese negotiations between President Roosevelt and the San Francisco School Board authorities, confidence continues in the President's final success.

Reports from abroad received here from a creditable source agree in attributing the failure of the negotiations to the want of emissaries of a power hostile to Japan, ever watching to victimize her and dispossess her power.
